Dr. Trevor Smith

Betrayed and Condemned

³⁶ Then Jesus went with his disciples to a place called Gethsemane, and he said to them, “Sit here while I go over there and pray.” ³⁷ He took Peter and the two sons of Zebedee along with him, and he began to be sorrowful and troubled. ³⁸ Then he said to them, “My soul is overwhelmed with sorrow to the point of death. Stay here and keep watch with me.” ³⁹ Going a little farther, he fell with his face to the ground and prayed, “My Father, if it is possible, may this cup be taken from me. Yet not as I will, but as you will.” -Matthew 26:56-59

When Jesus experienced his greatest agony, he prayed. In the Gospels, Jesus is constantly praying. He was always going somewhere quiet to be alone with God. We struggle with prayer. Jesus knew that he drew his strength from spending time daily in prayer with God.

Knowing that he was about to be betrayed into the hands of the religious authorities, Jesus invited his three closest friends to pray with him. He threw himself on the ground and prayed, “Father, please take this cup from me. I don’t want to have to go through this. Please, Father, let there be some other way.” Luke tells us that he was perspiring drops of blood. He was in intense pain and agony. Mark tells us that Jesus was afraid. He was feeling intense sorrow and grief.

Christians believe that Jesus is fully human and fully divine. I find great comfort in the fact that Jesus knows what it’s like to be afraid. Jesus knows what it’s like to wish for a different outcome. Jesus knows what it’s like to have his heart broken by betrayal, sorrow, and grief. So, I want you to know that when you walk through times of intense grief, sorrow, pain, or suffering, Jesus knows exactly how you feel because he has experienced intense grief, sorrow, pain, and suffering. When you pray to Jesus, you are praying to someone who understands what you are feeling. I want to encourage you to have a growing and vibrant prayer life because it changes our lives.

On Sunday we will continue our 24 Hours that Changed the World sermon series by taking a closer look at the way Jesus prayed and prepared himself for his journey to the cross. We’ll also talk about the way Judas Iscariot betrayed Jesus with a kiss.

Then, on March 24, we’ll hear the most tragic and ironic story in the history of humankind. It is the story of how a group of God’s own priests, rabbis, and biblical scholars failed to see that God had taken on flesh to walk among them and how they decided to try him for blasphemy and put him to death. Jesus was an itinerant preacher and teacher who had invited lost people to be found. He ministered to prostitutes, tax collectors, and sinners. He healed the sick, the blind, and the lame. He cleansed lepers, just as the prophets had foretold. The Sanhedrin decided that this man needed to be put to death. I hope you will invite someone you know to come with you as we worship together and prepare our hearts for Easter. Have a great week, and I will see you on Sunday.

Blessings,
Trevor

Easter is on April 21st this year, and it is quickly approaching. The Children's Ministry has started planning for our annual Easter Egg Hunt. We will need lots of plastic eggs and prefilled plastic eggs to make this a memorable event for our children and the families in our community as well.

Our Girl Scouts have volunteered to fill our Easter Eggs on Sunday, April 7 during their normal scheduled meeting. If you can donate candy, plastic eggs, or prefilled plastic eggs, please place them in the wagon in the Narthex by Monday, April 1st.

Blessings,

Youth News

I want to thank everyone who came out to our Mission Relay last weekend! Thanks to your hard work and hearts for ministry, we packed 95 blessing bags for our homeless neighbors, wrote letters to our Compassion International friends, and cleaned out and organized the Youth supply closet! Selfishly, I'm pretty excited about that last one. You have made a great impact in our church, in our community, and around the world!

We're going to an OKC Thunder game next Monday, March 18, for their Faith Night! Church groups and youth groups will be coming out for a night of fun, faith, and watching the Thunder beat up on the Miami Heat. If you or someone you know wants to go, let me know ASAP!

Finally, we will be having a Mini-Retreat after church on Sunday, March 24. That's the last day of most of our Spring Breaks, so this will be a time to rest and refuel before the downhill slide to the end of school. We'll gather for lunch, games, and a time of worship and fellowship to get our spirits ready to end the year!

Grace upon Grace,
Michael

Tidbits from The Learning Center

Denise Buthion, T.L.C. Director

Each week our two oldest classes, the Jaguars and the Cheetahs, go to chapel. We invite the children to experience worship in our lovely sanctuary. They learn a Bible story and sing songs. Pastor Trevor, Associate Pastor Michael, and Tausha, our Director of Children's Ministry, lead the fifteen minute chapel services. These children have experienced the joy of praying at our alter and taking home stories to share with their families. Last week one of the children came early to school with her father and showed him around the sanctuary. She looked around the pews calling "Jesus, come out. I'm here. Don't be shy." Isn't that delightful? She's only two years old and has a relationship with Christ. Several families have recorded their children singing songs they've learned in chapel and shared them with us. Last week our children experienced Ash Wednesday and received their sign of the cross on their hands. They look forward to the weekly chapel lessons and are growing in their faith journeys.

Pianist Angela Michael to Play on Sunday

Angela Michael, pianist, will collaborate with Antone Godding at the services on Sunday, March 17. The musicians will perform a piano/organ arrangement which blends together a classical composition and a hymn. Recent new members at NHUMC, Angela and her husband, Medhat Michael, joined the church in April 2018. Their son, Mark (also affectionately known to the church as the "Kiva Baby"), will turn 2 years old on March 18. Mark may very well share Angela's interest in music, because any time she attempts to play the piano, Mark is quite determined that HE is the one who should be playing! Music provides great joy to Angela. As a child she studied piano and organ, and later minored in music at the University of Texas at Austin. She currently serves as Deputy General Counsel for the Oklahoma Office of Management and Enterprise Services, where she negotiates technology contracts on behalf of the State of Oklahoma.
