The Power of Love

If I speak in the tongues of mortals and of angels, but do not have love, I am a noisy gong or a clanging cymbal. ² And if I have prophetic powers, and understand all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have all faith, so as to remove mountains, but do not have love, I am nothing. ³ If I give away all my possessions, and if I hand over my body so that I may boast, but do not have love, I gain nothing. ⁴ Love is patient; love is kind; love is not envious or boastful or arrogant ⁵ or rude. It does not insist on its own way; it is not irritable or resentful; ⁶ it does not rejoice in wrongdoing, but rejoices in the truth. ⁷ It bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. ⁸ Love never ends.

-I Corinthians 13:1-8

When he was asked, "What is the greatest commandment?" Jesus said, "The first is, 'Hear, O Israel: the Lord our God, the Lord is one; ³⁰ you shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind, and with all your strength.' ³¹ The second is this, 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.' There is no other commandment greater than these."

And when Jesus was preparing to face the cross, he told his disciples, ³⁴ "I give you a new commandment, that you love one another. Just as I have loved you, you also should love one another. ³⁵ By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another."

The ability to love God and people is the essence of following and serving Jesus. In his first letter to the Corinthians Church, the Apostle Paul defines love and describes the way we are to love in what has become known as The Love Chapter. In our culture we speak of falling in love or being in love as if it is a permanent condition and that nothing is easier or more natural than love. But this is not the kind of love Paul is describing. Paul says that Godly love is a choice more than a feeling. Love is patient and kind. Love is not envious or boastful or arrogant or rude. It does not insist on its own way. It is not irritable or resentful. Rather, love bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. Love never ends. We need the Holy Spirit's help to love this way.

You see, Jesus said that they will know we are Christians by our love.

That's why Paul says: ¹³ And now faith, hope, and love abide, these three; and the greatest of these is love.

It's why when Mr. Rogers was asked, "What changes the world?" he replied, "The only thing that ever really changes the world is when somebody gets the idea that love can abound and can be shared."

On Sunday we will continue our sermon series, We Are the Church, by taking a closer look at the Power of Love. We will also honor and bless all of the women in our church as we observe Mother's Day. Our mothers and mother-figures have blessed us and demonstrated God's love to us in so many ways. We invite you to post a picture of you and your mother along with a message of love on our Facebook page: facebook.com/nicholshillsumc.

I hope you will join us for online worship on Sunday at 10:50 a.m., and I challenge you to let the people in your life know that you love them.

Blessings,
Trevor

We Are The Church

I am the church!

You are the church!

We are the church together!

All who follow Jesus, all around the world!

Yes, we're the church together!

we begin a new sermon series called We Are The Church and learn why the local church is the hope of the world and why being part of the church will bless you and build you up in the days and weeks to come.

Tidbits from The Learning Center

Denise Buthion,
T.L.C. Director

Here is a recipe of home-made playdough for families to enjoy. It is easy to make. Plus, it is a wonderful activity to do with your children. Mix one cup of salt, two cups of flour, one teaspoon of cream of tartar, two tablespoons of vegetable oil, two cups of water, and a few drops of food coloring. Combine all the ingredients in a pan and cook over low heat, stirring continuously, until all ingredients are well mixed and the dough begins to pull away from the side of the pan. The dough will look very lumpy but will mix smoothly after ten minutes of cooking. Remove from pan and knead for two minutes. The playdough can be reused for three to four weeks if kept in an air-tight container. This activity helps children develop fine motor control. Strength and dexterity are important for holding crayons, pencils, markers, scissors, etc. Try the recipe and let us know how it turned out. This should provide hours of enjoyment and great opportunities for intellectual development.
