Oceans (Where Feet May Fail)

You call me out upon the waters,
the great unknown where feet may fail.
And there I find You in the mystery.
In oceans deep, my faith will stand.
And I will call upon Your name,
and keep my eyes above the waves.
When oceans rise, my soul will rest in Your embrace,
for I am Yours and You are mine.

“Oceans (Where Feet May Fail)”, by Hillsong United

After Jesus fed more than five thousand people with five loaves and two fish, he put his disciples in a boat and sent them ahead to the other side while he went up the mountain to pray. That evening, the boat was battered by the waves, and early in the morning between 3:00 and 6:00 a.m., Jesus came walking toward them on the sea.

²⁶ But when the disciples saw him walking on the sea, they were terrified, saying, “It is a ghost!”

²⁷ But immediately Jesus spoke to them and said, “Take heart, it is I; do not be afraid.” ²⁸ Peter answered him, “Lord, if it is you, command me to come to you on the water.” ²⁹ He said, “Come.”

So Peter got out of the boat, started walking on the water, and came toward Jesus. ³⁰ But when he noticed the strong wind, he became frightened, and beginning to sink, he cried out, “Lord, save me!”

³¹ Jesus immediately reached out his hand and caught him, saying to him, “You of little faith, why did you doubt?” ³² When they got into the boat, the wind ceased. ³³ And those in the boat worshiped him, saying, “Truly you are the Son of God.”

Jesus puts us in the boat he calls, “Church,” and sends us out into unpredictable waters. He prays for us and never takes his eyes off of us, and sometimes the waves come and batter the boat. We may wonder if we will make it back to shore, but then Jesus comes to us, walking on the water because he is Lord even over chaos. We may not recognize him at first, but if we dare to go to him, he invites us to come to him, to step out of the boat and join him in walking on the waters of chaos.

On Sunday, we will conclude our Playlist sermon series by taking a closer look at “Oceans (Where Feet May Fail)” which is a song that is based on the story of Jesus calling Peter out of the boat and helps us consider the way Jesus calls us to walk by faith into the future God has for us. Jesus wants us to understand that to follow him is to be led in difficult and challenging situations which will try our very best, but in the midst of those challenging situations God’s grace is always there in Jesus Christ to give us the strength to overcome them. This was the lesson that Jesus knows we need to learn if we are going to hang in there and be faithful. I hope you will plan to worship with us in person or online at 8:30 or 10:50 on Sunday morning.

Then, on Sunday, August 2, we will begin a new sermon series called Stand Strong in which we will take a closer look at people who had the courage to stand strong in their faith even when the powers that be threatened them. During this series we’ll hear multiple stories of people who remained faithful even when their lives were threatened and then received the reward that God has promised for those who endure in faith even when they suffer for it. Have a great week, and I will see you on Sunday.

Blessings,
Trevor

Tidbits from The Learning Center

Denise Buthion,
T.L.C. Director

This unique summer has given us the opportunity to slow down and see what really matters. In childcare we focus on the whole child, which includes their social, emotional, intellectual, and physical development.

We provide experiences for their social skills: learning to be patient, sharing with a friend, and following directions.

We cultivate emotional skills: expressing feelings in an appropriate manner, learning how to overcome frustration, and communicating their needs.

We work on intellectual skills: problem solving with puzzles and manipulatives, making choices like where to sit or who to play with, plus understanding colors, shapes, and numbers.

And we develop physical skills: how to hold a cup, pour from a pitcher, balance on one foot or cut with scissors. Our children really matter in this world. They are indeed our future.

-Denise

Regathering

We are committed to creating an environment that meets government recommendations for safety. To make that possible, our worship services have been redesigned to create a sanitary, touchless environment that allows for physical distancing. This includes a significantly reduced capacity. We are following the plan our Church Council approved by taking the following steps. Each step is contingent on the latest information available.

Step 1 — Online Worship at facebook.com/nicholshillsumc on Sunday, May 24.

We will continue to livestream our worship services each Sunday.

Step 2 — On Campus Worship beginning on Sunday, May 31.

We will maintain social distancing, and families will worship together.

Worship Services will be offered at 9:30 and 10:50 a.m.

No Childcare will be available.

No Sunday School Classes or Small Groups will meet.

No Outside Groups will meet.

Step 3 — Sunday School and Small Groups Resume on Sunday, July 19.

Children's Sunday School Classes and Adult Sunday School Classes resume with restrictions on size and with expectations for social distancing.

Worship Services will be offered at 8:30 and 10:50 a.m.

Step 4 — Normal Activities Resume at Nichols Hills U.M.C. on Sunday, August 2.

Let's Work to Stay Healthy Together

What We're Doing

- All staff and volunteers will be wearing masks.
- Additional hand-sanitizing stations will be placed throughout the building.
- All worship services will be a touchless experience, and all high-traffic areas will be thoroughly sanitized between services.
- No water fountains will be open or usable.
- No hospitality food or beverages will be offered.
- No offering plates will be passed. Instead, there will be offering plates in the back of the sanctuary for people who want to give.
- All hymnals, bibles, seatback materials, papers, and pens will be removed.
- We will use infrared thermometers to take the temperature of each person entering the building.

How You Can Help

- If you don't feel well or have health concerns, please stay home and join us for online worship at facebook.com/nicholshillsumc.
- We encourage you to wear a mask, and will have one available for you if needed.
- Please wash your hands and use hand sanitizer often.
- Maintain a distance of six feet between yourself and other guests.
