Jesus Blesses and Heals Children

²¹ When Jesus had crossed again in the boat to the other side, a great crowd gathered around him; and he was by the sea. ²² Then one of the leaders of the synagogue named Jairus came and, when he saw him, fell at his feet ²³ and begged him repeatedly, “My little daughter is at the point of death. Come and lay your hands on her, so that she may be made well, and live.” ²⁴ So he went with him.

-Mark 5:21-24

We all have hurts, and we all need healing.

Sometimes we need healing for someone we love.

Jairus' daughter was sick, and she was dying. He needed Jesus to come and heal his daughter or she would die. So, Jairus begged Jesus to come with him, and Jesus willingly went with him. But they were too late. When they finally arrived, the young girl had already died. But Jesus said, “Do not doubt, only believe.” When he saw the people weeping and wailing loudly, he asked them, “Why do you make a commotion and weep? The child is not dead but sleeping.” ⁴⁰ And they laughed at him. But Jesus took the girl's parents with him into the room where the child was, took her by the hand, and said, “Little girl, get up!” And she did. She got up and began walking around.

On Sunday we will begin our Hope and Healing sermon series by focusing on the healing that Jesus offers to children. Jesus healed many children throughout his ministry. The people he healed and the way he offered healing tells us a lot about Jesus and the kingdom of God. In Jesus' day children were not valued as having sacred worth. In the ancient world, unwanted children were often simply left to die, a practice called “exposure.” This decision was usually made during the first eight days of life. This custom changed because children were important to Jesus. He healed children. He blessed children. He said, “Let the little children come to me; do not stop them; for it is to such as these that the kingdom of God belongs.” He told his disciples, “Truly I tell you, unless you change and become like children, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven. ⁴ Whoever becomes humble like this child is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven. ⁵ Whoever welcomes one such child in my name welcomes me.” Jesus taught his disciples to love children, to speak for children, and to stand up for children.

Children are important in our church. We are always seeking to bless children and to help them experience Jesus' love and healing. We minister to children through our Children's Ministry and The Learning Center, and we are always working to feed and clothe children and young persons at Nichols Hills Elementary School and John Marshall High School. I invite you to pray for children and our schools this week and join us for a meaningful worship service in person or online this Sunday at 8:30 or 10:50 a.m. I also invite you to join us for Nichols Thrills on Wednesday, September 30 at 6:00 p.m. as we discuss the way Jesus offered healing and hope to children and how we can do the same with the children in our lives.

Blessings,
Trevor

Hope and Healing

We all have hurts, and we all need healing. Throughout his ministry, Jesus healed all kinds of people. Jesus healed children. Jesus healed mentally ill people. Jesus healed lepers. Jesus even healed his enemies. Every time Jesus healed people he offered them hope.

Join us as we take a closer look at four people Jesus healed. Together, we'll experience Jesus' Hope and Healing and learn how we can offer Hope and Healing to people in the name of Jesus.

Youth Ministry

Hunter Patman
Fountain,
Youth Director

It has been a great time at the church over the last couple of weeks. I have so enjoyed getting to meet more of the youth and more of the congregation. As well as that, I have also enjoyed getting to do a plethora of other things around the church. I am extremely excited about the things that are occurring within this community.

As for the youth ministry, even though we are in the midst of a pandemic, I will still be doing whatever I can to stay in contact with as many of you as possible. I hope you all have a blessed week!

Sincerely,
Hunter

Children's Ministry

Our Girl Scout meetings for Troop 22 have begun. All of our young ladies and leaders are taking precautions as they meet at our church for fellowship earning new badges. The leaders are doing temperature checks at the door, and they have a Covid precaution plan in place for families. This year there are twelve scouts participating and five leaders. Troop 22 includes girls who are in early elementary through high school. We look forward to seeing and hearing about all of the great things our Girl Scout partners will learn and explore in the coming months.

Blessings,
Tausha

Tidbits from The Learning Center

Denise Buthion, T.L.C. Director

Our children who are six months old and up will be screened by Vizavance on September 24. Vizavance was previously known as Prevent Blindness Oklahoma. This screening will take place in each child's classroom. It takes less than one minute per child to screen for vision issues. There is no fee to families for this service. We have seen the benefit of this screening. Over the last six years at least one child in TLC has been referred to an eye doctor for further testing. These referrals resulted in six children getting glasses. Early detection can prevent further vision loss. Results are sent to families that same day of the screening. We know that good vision is essential to children's learning. This is a blessing for children and families in TLC.
