united methodist church

Dr. Trevor Smith

<sup>13</sup> Someone in the crowd said to Jesus, “Teacher, tell my brother to divide the family inheritance with me.” <sup>14</sup> But he said to him, “Friend, who set me to be a judge or arbitrator over you?” <sup>15</sup> And he said to them, “Take care! Be on your guard against all kinds of greed; for one’s life does not consist in the abundance of possessions.” -Luke 12:13-15

In A Christian View of Money: Celebrating God’s Generosity, Mark Vincent writes, “Money has a godlike power. I think about it a lot. How and when I might get more of it. What I will do with it once I get it. How much of it I want to share. How much I want to keep for myself. What I would do with it if I suddenly came into a large amount. Money consumes my waking moments and shows up in my dreams. Even when I do not think about currency, credit cards, checking accounts, or investments, I wonder about good prices on automobiles, clothing, and generic medications should one of my children get an ear infection. I try to keep my taxes down, improve energy-saving measures in my home, and seek a cost-effective way to travel from point A to point B. In North America, where being a consumer is considered a birthright, money’s hold is so powerful that one-third of all adults say financial worries prevent them from sleeping or relaxing.”

What about you? Do your finances bring you fear or freedom?

When someone asked Jesus to settle a financial dispute with his brother, Jesus turned to the crowd and said, “Take care! Be on your guard against all kinds of greed; for one’s life does not consist in the abundance of possessions.” It seems that Jesus didn’t agree with Gordon Gekko who said, “The point is, ladies and gentleman, that greed, for lack of a better word, is good. Greed is right, greed works. Greed clarifies, cuts through, and captures the essence of the evolutionary spirit. Greed, in all of its forms; greed for life, for money, for love, knowledge has marked the upward surge of mankind.” No. Jesus warns us to put up our guard against all kinds of greed. Why? Because the purpose of your life is not simply to accumulate a bunch of stuff. The life Jesus intends for you is much richer than that. In fact, Jesus wants us to learn the valuable lesson that so often in life, less is more.

I want to invite you to worship with us in person or online as we begin a new sermon series called Making Change. Our messages over the next four Sundays will help you think about your relationship with money in the context of your relationship with God. It’s my hope that this series will help your faith in God grow as we as we explore Biblical concepts for Making Change in ways that will bless you and honor God.

I also want to invite you to join us for our Church Picnic on Sunday, October 25 at 5:00 p.m. We will have games and crafts for children and great music from our praise band. Bring your own picnic meal, and join us for a fun evening of food and fellowship.

Have a great week, and I will see you on Sunday.

Blessings,
Trevor

Consecration Sunday Is Coming

At Nichols Hills United Methodist Church we approach financial stewardship from a biblical perspective. We do not view the money people give to our church merely as a way to pay the bills. Rather, we believe that how we handle money is a spiritual issue and that it is important to talk about how the wisdom we find in the Bible teaches us to use our money in a way that is pleasing to God. We find that one of the best ways to help people grow spiritually in their relationship with God is by helping them to grow in generosity by supporting our church's mission and ministry with a percentage of their incomes. Beginning on Sunday, October 25, our senior pastor, Dr. Trevor Smith, will preach a sermon series called Making Change that will focus on Biblical concepts for Making Change in ways that will bless you and honor God.

Throughout these four Sundays we will focus on our relationship with God and how God's generosity to us calls us to respond by living a life of generosity. We'll let the Bible speak to us about the role of money and resources in our lives and talk about the blessings of living a generous life. We will turn to the teachings of Jesus to help you more clearly understand what it means to earn all you can, save all you can, and give all you can. You will have the opportunity to prayerfully ask God, "What percentage of my income is God calling me to give?"

Consecration Sunday will be on November 15. During our morning worship services at 8:30 and 10:50 on Consecration Sunday, we are asking the people in our church to make their financial commitments to our church's missional, benevolent, and spiritual growth ministries in our community and around the world. Every person who completes an Estimate of Giving Card will do so voluntarily by attending morning worship on Consecration Sunday. However we encourage people to attend who feel strongly opposed to completing a card. The procedure will be done as an act of worship in such a way that no one will feel personal embarrassment if he or she chooses not to fill out a card.

We will do no home solicitation to ask people to complete cards. We are delighted to have our senior pastor, Dr. Trevor Smith, serve as our Consecration Sunday preacher this year. During morning worship, Trevor will conduct a brief period of instruction and inspiration in which we will each make our commitments as a confidential act of worship. We will be sharing more information about Consecration Sunday with you in the coming weeks. This year you will be able to participate in our Harvest Dinner by dining in our Fellowship Hall or picking up a take-out order. Since we will make no follow-up visits to ask people to complete their cards, we will make every effort to inform and inspire in our hope that everyone will commit to participate in Consecration Sunday through in person or online worship and our Harvest Dinner at 11:00 a.m. and noon on November 15. Thanks in advance for your enthusiastic participation in Consecration Sunday.

Sincerely,
Stephanie Henry
Chairperson of the Church Council

Children's Ministry

Tausha

Children's Ministry Director

We have a new face in our children's ministry. I would like to introduce Ms. Patricia Harris. Patricia has worked with children and taught Sunday school for many years. She enjoys working with all ages, although she has a passion for teaching and guiding toddlers and two-year old's. Patricia also works with the younger children at our church in The Learning Center. Her ability to understand how young minds think and grow while teaching them to love God has been a wonderful asset to our ministry. Please stop by on your way to worship and welcome her to our church.

I hope you are planning to attend our Church Picnic on Sunday, October 25 at 5:00 p.m. Bring your own picnic meal and join us near the tennis court south of our parking lot. I am extremely excited for this chance to get to see each and every one of you. Have a blessed week!

Tidbits from The Learning Center

Fall is here... cool mornings, evenings, and hot days. How is a child to dress? We encourage children to wear layers with sweaters that can come off for the day. Playing comfortably is an important part of coming to school. We want our children to enjoy the sensory table—making mud pies, the water table—pouring and emptying pitchers, and painting pumpkins any way they like. Good learning is often messy. Maria Montessori said, “You must have it in your hand before it can go to your head.” Many of the life lessons we all learn come from getting it wrong or getting messy. Enjoy our photos of children learning in the best way possible: hands on and messy.

-Denise

Consecration Sunday and Harvest Dinner

Consecration Sunday will be on November 15. We hope you will plan to join us for worship in person or online at 8:30 and 10:50 a.m.

That day we will also enjoy our Harvest Dinner, which will be a free catered dinner. This is one of the ways we express our gratitude to you for all the ways you give and serve in our church. If you attend the 8:30 service, we invite you to attend a Sunday school class at 9:45 and then enjoy the Harvest Dinner at 11:00 a.m. If you attend our 10:50 worship service, we invite you to enjoy the Harvest Dinner at Noon.

This year you will be able to participate in our Harvest Dinner by dining in our Fellowship Hall or picking up a takeout order. We will be taking reservations in worship the next three Sundays, or you can make your reservation by emailing Delaney at dsheffield@nicholshillsumc.org.
